

"The Boy Scout"

You'll find him on a mountain trail
Well off the beaten track
Adventure mirrored in his eyes
His world within his pack

You'll find him when disaster strikes
With grime upon his face
You'll also find him deep in thought
In some secluded place

You'll find him where the campfire glows
And friendship fills the air
Just seek the brotherhood of men
You're sure to find him there

You'll find him here in each good turn
Content to do his part
But most of all you'll find him etched
On some Scoutmaster's heart.
